

“Waiting for Superman” Extra Credit

“Waiting for Superman” discusses the current state of our public school system. This assignment should be a thoughtful critical analysis of the film. In this analysis please include the following:

- Discuss your past and current academic experiences as well as your future academic goals while using the film as a reference.
- Compare and contrast your experiences to those of the children highlighted within the film.
- Present one statistic provided in the film and discuss the implications of that information.
- Discuss your overall views regarding “Waiting for Superman”.

The final extra credit submission must be at least 3 pages in length, double spaced, 12 font size, Times New Roman font, 1 inch margins all around and MLA format. This assignment must be turned in to me, in class on December 9, 2010.
